

Kaltura Streaming Platform

The all-in-one streaming platform, for all

Bring your new streaming service to market in a few weeks. Kaltura's ready-to-play platform has everything you need. No hidden integrations. No extra services. No fuss. All-in-one.

Full stream ahead

Everything you need to launch, operate and manage your direct-to-consumer streaming service. A robust CMS, media preparation, distribution, any monetization option, loads of features, a gorgeous UI, all in-the-box... Oh, and it all comes with a low entry cost!

All the screens you love

Let viewers enjoy your can't-miss shows whenever, wherever, and however they want. Our branded web, mobile, and Smart TV apps provide the best experience way before they even press play.

Your content's worth it

Monetize all your content through SVOD, AVOD, TVOD, or a mix of all of the above. Set flexible pricing plans that fit your viewers' needs in every market and currency. In short, do you, whatever suits you and your viewers.

Double features

Keep the fun going and viewers glued to the screen with personal recommendations, watchlists, 'continue watching', content collections, parental control, and reminders.

Land and expand

Kaltura Streaming Platform is just the beginning. Expand your streaming service without limits with add-ons, APIs, adapters, and 50 partner integrations to create (literally) any platform you want.

Why Kaltura Streaming Platform? Go to market faster. Grow at your own pace.

A unified CMS

An intuitive and easy-to-use content management system to curate, publish, distribute, promote, monetize, and analyze your videos, as well as manage metadata, collections, users, and devices. It really does it all.

Monetization tools

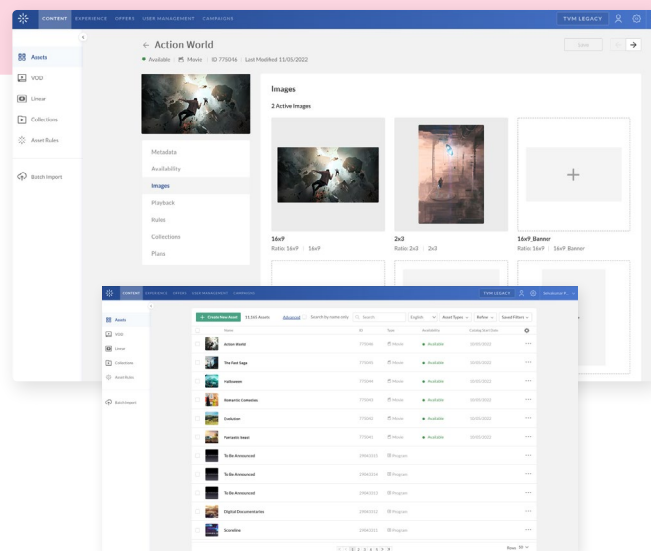

Whether you go for subscription-based plans, ads, or both, we've got you covered. Plus, there's also add-ons for TVOD, boxsets, billing, and ad management to add to the mix and boost monetization.

End-to-end media preparation

Bulk ingests and uploads, fast transcoding and metadata processing, and multi-DRM for cross-device VOD protection. Everything directly from the cloud. Do you want more? We've also got powerful add-ons for EPG and live.

Personalized recommendations

Spice up your viewers' experience with advanced content discovery and recommendations based on their search history, previously watched shows, location, profile settings, interests, behavior, and more. Finding something to watch has never been easier!

Analytics & reporting

Get actionable insights on playback, user engagement, household management and user profiles, devices, entitlements, transactions, and more. Oh, and there's advanced QoE/QoS and business insights if you need them too!

Client applications

The icing on the cake? Flawless web apps, mobile (Android and iOS), and for Smart TV apps (Samsung, LG, and Google TV) with easy UI customization to keep it on-brand.

Expandable solution

Hit the ground running with a full-on solution and grow from there. Kaltura TV Platform features 400 API actions and 13 adapter types for seamless integration with 3rd parties and full compatibility with back-end releases. Add 50 partner integrations, and there you go, your dream video platform!
